We, the undersigned, did count the ballots pertaining to the proposed change of Weimaraner standard of the Weimaraner Club of America on Monday afternoon, August 16, 1971. The results we counted and agreed upon were:

- 744 Votes, for disqualification of "a distinctly blue or black coat".
- 245 Votes, against disqualification of "a distinctly blue or black coat".
- 1 Ballot was received on which the party refused to vote.
- 3 Ballots were received subsequent to the date the ballots were to be received and were not counted.
